Maurice Fernandez author, counsellor, and teacher in astrology made his first professional steps in the field in 1990. His dedication to his practice and research has quickly earned him a worldwide reputation of excellence, grace, and wisdom. Today he teaches and lectures in the United States, Canada, Europe, Israel, and South Africa, enriching the study of astrology with spiritual essence.

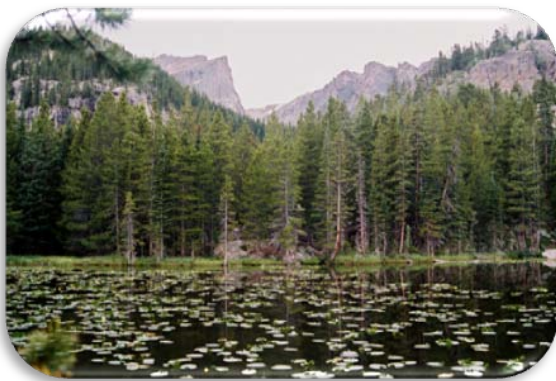

More than a brain filling experience...

The on location segments will take place in Boulder, Colorado, and Kalapana, Hawaii. These on-location segments are a rich experience that includes the sacred practice of Kundalini Yoga, hiking in nature, and community fun for a comprehensive mind, body, spirit experience! (These additional activities are optional).

Hiking and site seeing:

Boulder and Hawaii

From the multitude of trails in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado, to the volcanic beaches of the Big Island in Hawaii, we make sure the study is balanced with a direct experience of nature

Kundalini Yoga

This sacred technique has a life changing effect as it realigns the spirit with the body and helps detoxify the whole system. The level of practice is moderate and requires minimal flexibility

Potluck

Lots of delicious organic food and several moments to feast and celebrate together! Be sure to bring your positive spirit...

The Complete Course Program:

Segment 1: Levels of Evolution of the Soul and Everything about the Nodal Axis

Definition and identification of the progressive stages of the soul's evolution. Identifying how the same chart can express itself differently through the various evolutionary stages. Understanding these dynamics is absolutely essential for an accurate chart analysis and counselling.

The Nodal Axis of the Moon: transcendence of duality. The Nodal Axis portrays very graphically in the birth chart what are the core emotional and evolutionary needs of the person. It is a relatively simple equation that is incomparable in precision and depth. We will explore the classic archetype of the Nodal Axis, as well as its particularities when planets form aspects to it and alter its regular progression. Understanding planets aspecting the Nodes provides a rich perspective on the nature of the soul incarnated and its evolutionary processes.*

Segment 2: Neptune, the End of Hope, the Beginning of Truth

Focus on the revolutionary perspective developed by Maurice on Neptune, Pisces and the 12th house. This archetype represents the beginning and ending of all things, thus, it contains the most preliminary needs and instincts as well as all the clues about the highest potential of a being. The most basic codes and truths about life which eventually emerge through the rest of the zodiac are seeded in the Neptunian paradigm. Neptune will be placed in every house and sign in order to understand the particularities of its influence. This material is unique and most fascinating!

Segment 3: Pluto & Uranus

Pluto and Uranus are the two outer planets that instigate progress and evolution towards the truth.

Uranus symbolizes our highest achievement as controlling beings; the peak of intelligence and creativity that aims at dominating the play of life. We will explore this fascinating archetype, where we play God and actually become Gods, at least for a while. The apex of humanity and its shadows!*

Pluto represents the soul need to outgrow its own limitations, exposing a person to his/her deepest weaknesses in order to change and heal. It represents the evolution of the emotional body. The recognition of limitations sometimes results from experiencing pain, thus, Pluto symbolizes all ways to overpower pain when working through our limitations.*

Segment 4: Chart Interpretation and Practice

also: Aspects, the Ascendant, Retrograde Planets, and Medical Astrology

The Ascendant is another misunderstood dynamic in Astrology. It has a direct correlation with the* 12th house as it describes the new ego about to be formed to serve evolution. It represents the wave rising from the ashes of the 12th house, so to speak.

A clear and insightful study of Aspects; understanding the nature of aspect beyond the narrow associations of “harmonious” or “disharmonious...” The study of aspects also includes the definition of Planetary Pairs: how does a pair or planets in aspects become a new unite and force.

Retrograde planets in the natal chart and in transit. Understanding the phenomena of retrograde planets that oppose the sun... why it is so, and what does it tells us about the evolutionary needs.

The following chapter of this segment will concentrate on understanding the implications of evolutionary challenges through the medium of our physical and mental wellbeing: Medical Astrology.

The last chapter of this segment will be dedicated to chart analysis; this means 3 days of plain practice on charts of participants. A unique opportunity to learn how to synthesize the symbols of the chart and detect core evolutionary dynamics. This is also an opportunity for participants to have their own charts analyzed and better understood!

Segment 5: Relationships in Astrology - Sexuality, Synastry and Composite

Focus on the different dimensions of relationship dynamics. Why two souls have come together? What is the relationship potential and inclination of a person? How to create healthy and growth-related relationships?

Learning about the different structure of relationships, sexuality, essential needs, identifying compatibility in the chart. Synastry: Using double wheels to see how the chart of a person interacts with the chart of his/her partner and identifying in such a way the meanings and purposes of their union and interactions. Composite charts: the chart of the union describing the expression of the union and its reasons to be.

Segment 6: Transits, Solar Arc, Progressions, Planetary Nodes

Through these 6 days we will start with the influence of Transits in using life events of participants to understand the technicalities as well as the karmic implications of life events.

The following chapter will be dedicated to the study of Solar Arc and Progressions, probably the most powerful predictive techniques existing! Solar Arcs provide the insight to nail down precise occurrences in the life of a person. Focus on refining the skills to identify significant themes in this context.

Planetary Nodes are still in the shadows of Astrology; an unexploited gem! The planetary nodes of outer planets have a very slow motion, thus all existing beings share the same degrees of these nodes (the nodes of Pluto, Uranus, and Neptune essentially). As it is so, we will explore the personal as well as collective implications of this phenomenon. Since the whole planet radiates on these same vibes, what does it say about the nature of our times... and what to expect from transits on these nodes.

Segment 7: Chart Analysis and Counselling skills - 6 days of Practice

This is a new segment added in 2007. Following previous experience with the course, it became obvious that more practice was essential in order to truly master the material. The focus of this segment is about developing a sharper eye upon analyzing birth charts, and thus, developing the capacity to identify core dynamics without excessive preparation before meeting a client. Many charts will be analyzed with the group, by the group and with guests who will have their charts analyzed in real time within the framework of the study.

Testimonials

In reviewing my past couple year's study of Evolutionary Astrology with Maurice Fernandez, I note a number of changes. I have studied astrology for over 30 years with a number of different teachers and Maurice stands out as unique and gifted among them. I personally believe that the greatest contributing factor to this is his own dedication toward using (and fusing together) astrology and yoga as a path toward personal "awakening", "opening the heart", or "enlightenment," all of these being different words for the same process of self evolution. As you teach from the level of consciousness that you have achieved, the quality and depth of Maurice's teachings reflect a high level of personal evolution, awareness, love, and devotion to the evolutionary process of others.

The interpretations, insights, and applications offered in the course are very clearly communicated, precise in their meaning, and often contain new perspectives I've not heard anywhere else. These teachings have both served to expand my understanding of astrology as well as inspired me to improve and expand my writing, counseling, and teaching practice. They serve as tremendous food for thought which leads me to connect more and more of the dots together in new ways within my own work. I feel this is truly ground breaking, new material that can and should be shared widely.

Lastly, I would like to note that Maurice's workshops which combine both the study of astrology and kundalini yoga can serve as a personal retreat as much as strictly an educational experience. By that I mean that the time spent and information shared has brought about inner, personal change and a deepening of my consciousness, not just more notes to study and mental stimulation which I find far too much of in the broader astrological community. I feel that this deepening of my consciousness allows me to bring more healing through my astrological work which is what I believe it is all about to start (and finish) with.

I'm very grateful for my relationship with Maurice and would be glad to speak with anyone about my experiences with him and his work at any time.

"Maurice joins his mind with his heart to bring brilliance to his teaching. He interprets the symbolic language of Evolutionary Astrology with detail, driven by insight, which makes revelation a personal and profound experience. It has been a privilege to be his student."

J.S - The Complete Course

Although I have not completed the course yet, I have thoroughly enjoyed every minute and look forward to continuing. After studying astrology for many years and reading a lot of books, I have finally achieved a level of conceptual understanding from Maurice. His teaching style is very conducive to learning and understanding the material and he is very patient with questions. Also very important is his personal attention and the interaction between the students. In addition, I have made amazing friends from this experience, as well as enjoying traveling to Boulder and Costa Rica for the on-location segments.
