

Segment 7

SEDOONA

March 21-28, 2012

Whether you are ready to be certified or simply recognize the value of high octane practice sessions, join us for this special segment in mystical Sedona!

The study will include in-depth chart analysis, counseling skills, and live readings on real clients – along with kundalini yoga practice, hikes and ceremony in the heart of the sacred vortexes. A holistic experience that addresses mind, spirit, heart, and body!

In the case where all homework assignments are completed and the Segment 7 readings are conducted successfully, participants will be certified on March 27 in a special ceremony.

The study will take place in a most beautifully designed house where participants will also be staying. Rooms are usually shared with another participant.

Community activities include shared cooking, spiritual movie nights, and other delights...
